SOCIAL SCANDAL.

The Tokyo correspondent of the London Standard relates a social scandal, indirectly involving the imperial house, which, he says, is causing a great stir in the Japanese capital.

The story is that Count Togo, twenty-three years old, was sent to England two years ago to complete his education, and while there married an Englishwoman. His family upon learning this promptly ordered the count to return to Japan, which he did, leaving his wife in England. When he arrived home, he found that his family, which at the time of his departure was in the process of arranged marriages, had in his absence started negotiations for his marriage to Princess Take, a member of a collateral branch of the imperial family.

The advances were favorably received owing to the exalted rank and good record of the Togos, and the count's divorce from his English wife was immediately resolved upon. This was comparatively easy in Japan, and the idea was at once carried out without consulting the wife.

The emperor upon learning of the affair revoked his consent to the betrothal of the count and princess, the former patent of nobility was withdrawn, and the star of his family is in eclipse.

Various penalties have been dealt out to others concerned in the affair, including a number of officials who had been "squired." All these were compelled to resign.

The woman who was married to Count Togo is said to be a widow of the name of Elena Addison, who is a Hungarian by birth. She is twenty-nine years old.

ALLEGED FORGED DEEDS.

It was rumored in Muskogee, Okla., last night that the Federal grand jury which is investigating the alleged purchase of two lots in 1900 and 1901 have decided on indictments against three persons and that from 10 to 50 counts had been found against each.

Daniels, Va., furnished the first witnesses. These are said to have testified unanimously that at least 38 deeds to town lots were forged.

Well-founded reports in circulation assert a much wider conspiracy than was suspected when the jury was called to weigh the testimony against not fewer than a dozen men.

Additional interest was added to the case by reason of the implication of the governor, Charles Haskell, in the investigation. He in turn declares the entire matter is due to the emulm of William R. Hearst.

In the years of 1900 and 1901 a large number of lots were disposed of to purchasers, who registered their names with the government in much the same manner as when land is "homesteaded."

Federal authorities now assert that unscrupulous men schemed the names of a number of "dummies" and thus obtained title to a number of lots when they were entitled to but one. In some cases, it is alleged, this was done without the knowledge of the "dummy" and in the others the dummies was a mere figurehead and surrendered his title gratuitously, or for a small compensation.

MUST PAY COSTS.

President Samuel Gompers, Vice President John Mitchell, and Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, who were recently adjudged in contempt of court and sentenced to terms of imprisonment, were yesterday ordered by Justice Wright, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, to pay the costs incurred in the proceedings. The costs aggregate about $1,500.

The labor leaders opposed the motion of the Rick Store and Range Company of St. Louis, Mo., that the costs be placed on them, asserting that most of the matter concerning which proof was taken was admitted by their attorneys, and that therefore the taking of testimony to substantiate these allegations was useless and the cost of such testimony should be paid by the complainants.

The complainants urged on the court that only portions of the material allegations were admitted by Mr. Gompers and his associates, and that these admitted facts were not sufficient to make out a case of contempt. The complainants having been put to the necessity of proving the allegations and their proof having been accepted by the court, the burden should fall on the labor leaders.

KIERAN ARRESTED.

P. J. Kieran, of the Fidelity Funding Company, was arrested yesterday afternoon in the Devonshire apartment house, New York, by detectives, under exciting circumstances. The detectives, having positive information that Kieran was in an apartment on the third floor, demanded admittance. Two friends of Kieran barred the way.

The detectives, fearing that Kieran would attempt to escape by the fire escape or the dumb waiter, grabbed an ax from the elevator and smashed in the door. Kieran was dragged out, protesting, and hustled to headquarters.

The arrest was made at the request of the chief of police of Pittsburgh, where four warrants, charging grand larceny, stand against Kieran.

Kieran was taken to police headquarters, but had been locked up only a few hours when word came from Superintendent of Police McQuade, of Pittsburgh, that Kieran had given bonds there and requesting that he be released.

This was done, but as Kieran left headquarters he was served with an order to appear in the supreme court on January 29 to be examined regarding the Fidelity Funding Company.

Is Great Music a Mystery to You?

SOMETIMES you see a reference in a newspaper or a magazine to some composer with whom you are wholly unfamiliar. You would like to know what kind of music that composer wrote—why it is that he has become so famous. You wish that someone in the household could play for you representative works of that composer.

The Pianola Piano

IS THE "OPEN SESAME" TO ALL MUSIC.

It answers all your musical questions—it is a veritable encyclopedia of music. It follows wherever your desires and your tastes lead. Over 15,000 compositions await the enjoyment of the owner of a Pianola or Pianola Piano. No music is too simple or too great for the conquest of the Pianolist.

CAUTION: There is only one Pianola. Do not make the mistake of supposing that you can go into any music store and buy the genuine Pianola and Pianola Piano.
